CODE OF ETHICS

The Association of Building Contractors of the San Bernardino Mountains, Inc. has developed the following Code of Ethics and asks each member to pledge to subscribe to this code and standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of their business. The entire Code of Ethics, which applies to all members of the Association is:

- 1. To comply with all laws and regulations of the industry in which the member is engaged.
- 2. To state in simple language and in clear terms all essentials of contracts and transactions.
- 3. To be ethical in all practices and in accordance with sound business principles.
- 4. To use the services of and promote the ethical business practices of fellow members whenever possible.
- 5. To cooperate with building officials to create a safe product for the betterment of the industry and the community.
- 6. To minimize any negative impact of our construction projects on the environment and/or the surrounding property owners.
- 7. To strive to maintain a safe work place, not only for our workmen, but for the community as well.
- 8. To promptly acknowledge and act on all customer complaints, and, in situations where complaints appear unreasonable and persistent, to encourage the customer to initiate an approved third party dispute settlement mechanism.
